The reader may find it helpful to review the Quadruplicities, or grouping of signs in the zodiac. This refers to the quality or the essential nature of the sign.

In a sense, the Quadruplicities refer to a person's manner of action. The Quadruplicities are divided into three groups: Cardinal, Fixed, and Mutable. Each group is composed of four signs.

Cardinal	Aries, Cancer, Libra, and Capricorn
Fixed	Taurus, Leo, Scorpio, and Aquarius
Mutable	Gemini, Virgo, Sagittarius, and Pisces

The Cardinal signs are outgoing and active signs. These are people who are action-oriented and the doers of the zodiac.

The Fixed signs are stable and 'fixed' meaning that they will not be pushed around in any way whatsoever. They will not react emotionally or violently but will just remain firm.

The Mutable signs are excellent companions because they are beautifully adaptable. These are enthusiastic, outgoing people who often put relationship compatibility over their individual needs.

If you are a female and want to know the kind of male lover that will ultimately bring you the greatest happiness in life you will look to the Sun and Mars in your own chart and discover a wealth of information.

Conversely, if you are a male and want to know the perfect female lovemate for who you are subconsciously searching, you will look to the Moon and Venus in your natal chart for this informative discovery.

Please note that these distinctions are not absolute. However, we suggest using the dominant characteristics of each person such as masculinity or femininity to analyze the planetary interaction.

For example, a masculine or dominant lover would refer to Sun oriented aspects in their natal chart.

Now for some keyword examples:

Part One: Your Perfect Partner

Aries Lovers are impulsive, passionate idealists. They are aggressive individuals with bold active make-ups. When they see something they want, they must have it immediately. Life to an Aries in love means to conquer. Since they possess such enterprise and initiative, they are somewhat inclined to start fights or quarrels. They are energetic and unrelenting in the pursuit of their own ends, which may at times result in too much aggressiveness.

Pushing may be an ineffective manifestation of the sign Aries. This happens when Aries tries to forward the personality in an officious and rude way. This mainly occurs through impulsivity: acting first and thinking later.

From the above it is obvious to see that an aggressive Aries lover needs a more passive partner for complete Aries lovers' compatibility. Aries have a relentless need to be the leaders.

Taurus Lovers are nicely keyed lovers. They are very companionable, slow, careful, and reserved even in their love make-up. Although Taurus people have a sensuous temperament, they are extremely traditional and are not experimenters in love. They want a steady relationship on which they may depend.

The quality of possession is strong in the Taurian make-up. They are eager to have or to own, to acquire -- sometimes even greedy. They are the hoarders of the zodiac. Their possessiveness will manifest in their outlook about the loved one. They will take good care of the partner but will always want the partner nearby.

Some people feel that this quality of possessiveness represents security and being loved. This is the type of person that will make the best partner for the Taurus person. The methodical side of the Taurus make-up is effective but at times method may become monotonous. This is why Taurus needs an amusing, interesting, and innovative lover to keep the relationship alive.

Part One: Your Perfect Partner

Gemini Lovers are by nature versatile and active. People falling into this category are bright and intelligent. They have a good awareness, are quick at conversation, and learn easily.

Restlessness is a strong part of the Gemini nature that must be restrained. This restlessness may be a factor in maintaining a good love relationship. Gemini is quickly attracted to an individual and may be very fickle about the union. Impatience and the inability to relax keep the relationship from developing into anything more than just a surface contact. Boredom may lead to a series of unfulfilling relationships.

Gemini's thrive on change. This urge for variety causes constant adjustments. Stability in a partnership develops if the mental side of Gemini finds an outlet. This mental outlet will reinforce all the effective virtues of Gemini and make it possible for their cleverness to be brought to an advanced or effective state. As a result of this development, new intellectual avenues will open up and counteract the constant restlessness and inconsistency.

Cancer Lovers love the home to the extent that they equate a love relationship with a harmonious home environment. Home, love and security all tie together for Cancer. There is a need in every Cancer for mothering. Even if they are not parents, they will naturally nurture and care.

The Cancer lover is very sensitive, in many cases this sensitivity is only to his own or to her own feelings rather than to the feelings of the partner. When hurt by the partner it is difficult for Cancer to rationalize the hurt and see it in perspective. There is more of a tendency to see the action as unkind and cruel.

This may make a very difficult relationship unless Cancer finds a love partner who is extremely understanding. A partner that truly understands the Cancer disposition will accept the tearful clinging part of the make-up. If Cancer marries a partner who cannot do this then the partner will automatically feel smothered and suffocated through the relationship and the partnership will become intolerable.
