

Chapter 4

Illustration 4-8, Cultural Victims
Chart: Sam 90-Degree Circle

Fixed Group

Uranus in Taurus	04 degrees	38 minutes
Venus in Leo	18 degrees	20 minutes
Jupiter in Scorpio	13 degrees	49 minutes

Mutable Group

Mercury in Gemini	27 degrees	22 minutes
Neptune in Virgo	12 degrees	05 minutes
Saturn in Pisces	10 degrees	13 minutes

Are You A Planetary Victim or Victor?

HISTORY: Joan and Sam, Cultural Victims

Many circumstances and conditions shape the love destiny of an individual. You must deal with heredity, economic conditions, environment, and lastly free will.

The following confidential case, the love story of Joan and Sam, emphasizes the early essential environmental dynamics or underlying forces that played such a vital part in the creation of their concept of love.

This duo dramatically points up the fact that an astrological interpretation is worth more intrinsic value with a complete and thorough understanding of each partners early environment influences.

The following two birthdays are of a female and a male in love, Joan and Sam.

These two vital human beings met, suddenly fell in love, quickly married, and spent a tormented life together; they both died just as violently and tragically as they lived.

The broad spectrum of planetary energies ignited through their love affair forced these two people to grow together against an impossible 'separateness'. This 'separateness' occurred as a result of (Ascendant) environmental rearing differences.

Sorrow at the inquest of Joan and Sam was not inevitable; their planetary destinies were beautifully fulfilled when viewed by their miraculous accomplishments resulting from their struggles.

Our case begins when Transiting Jupiter contacted Sam's natal Uranus and he suddenly receives a Visa, releasing him from his